

MAIN SIDEBAR

Subscribe | Newsletter

FOLLOW US ONLINE!

Save the Date

Like One person likes this. Be the first of your friends.

Great Sierra River Cleanup

For five years running, the third Saturday of September has drawn thousands of volunteers to the Sierra Nevada for the largest volunteer event in the region—the Great Sierra River Cleanup, sponsored by the Sierra Nevada Conservancy. This year, organizations across the region will coordinate local cleanups and spend 9 a.m. to noon on September 20th pulling trash out of our Sierra rivers, lakes, and streams— sources of drinking water for 23 million people in the state. If you would like to join this volunteer event that has collected nearly 600 tons of trash since its initiation in 2009, visit www.sierranevada.ca.gov and click on the Great Sierra River Cleanup link for more information!

Photo courtesy of Sierra Nevada Conservancy.

Like One person likes this. Be the first of your friends.

Photo courtesy of Sierra Nevada Conservancy.

Photo courtesy of Sierra Nevada Conservancy.

Sharing is caring!
1

You may also like:

Sierra Soaring

2014 Santa Cruz Challenge

Goin' Green and Easy—Green Tortoise Rolls
Global Flavor into Backyard
Adventures

Editor's Note: The Future is Green

Pacific Edge Climbing Gym

Saving the Planet One Meal
at a Time

This entry was posted in Blogs, Environment, Industry News, Kayaking, Whitewater and tagged California, Great Sierra River Cleanup, river, Sierra Nevada Conservancy on August 15, 2014 [http://adventuresportsjournal.com/water_sports/kayaking/save-the-date] by admin.

One thought on "Save the Date"

Canoeing Man

August 22, 2014 at 1:40 pm

I didn't even know there were river clean up organizations until last year and I've been noticing them all over the country now! This is a great thing to do to keep rivers clean for canoeing, kayaking, boating and fishing alike!
